

Join Us!

Amnesty International Southern California

Mini-Conference

on the Cal State Fullerton campus

Saturday March 1st 2003 - 9:00am - 6:00pm

Continental breakfast at 9am - free admission

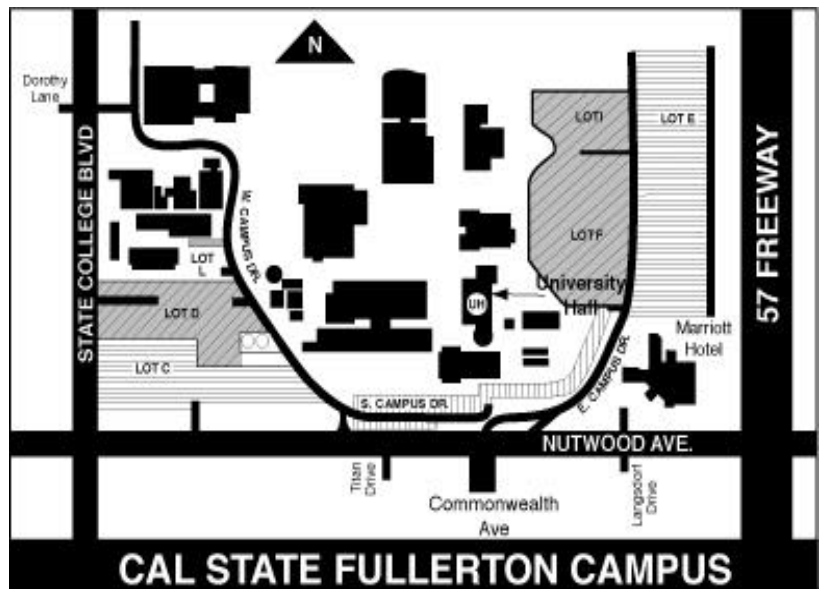

Speakers include:

Nguyen Thanh Trang from the Vietnam Human Rights Network &
Sheila Dauer of AIUSA's Women's Human Rights Network

AI activists will gather for one day to discuss effective methods in Human Rights work currently used in the Southern California area. We will share successes and develop strategies for working together. Let's educate ourselves, our fellow activists, and our communities about Human Rights. Join us and add your voice!

Possible Workshops include:

- Comparison of Humanitarian and Human Rights Law
- Human Rights Book Discussion -
 - Iraq
 - Vietnam
- Sex Trafficking
- International Criminal Court
- Intro to AI
- Death Penalty
- Group Health, Recruitment and Retention
- Use of the Internet in Human Rights Work
- Diversification
- Changes in Amnesty's Mission and more . . .

Continental breakfast provided, lunch on your own and let's all try to get together for dinner!!

How to Get to Cal State Fullerton

- Cal State Fullerton is located west of the Orange (57) Freeway in Fullerton. The university is bordered by Nutwood Avenue to the south, State College Boulevard to the west, Yorba Linda Boulevard to the north, and the 57 Freeway to the east.
- Coming from either the south or the north on the 57 Freeway, exit at Nutwood Avenue. Go west on Nutwood. Turn right at the main campus entrance at Commonwealth Avenue. Follow E. Campus Drive to Parking Lot F.
- The registration desk will be outside University Hall Room 252 at the south end of the building on the 2nd floor.

For more information please call the Western Regional Office at 310-815-0450