

Amnesty International Irvine

IUCC Advocates for Peace and Justice and Living Ubuntu present

Granito: How to Nail a Dictator

See how a dictator was brought to justice

The conviction of a former president for genocide

Irvine United Congregational Church
4915 Alton Parkway
Irvine

Sunday 29 Sep 2013
6:00 refreshments
6:40 introduction
7:00 film
8:45 discussion

See how former Guatemala
president Efraín Ríos Montt was convicted of genocide

An RSVP is appreciated
but not required.

To RSVP, and for more details, see www.aiusaoc.org/granito

Granito: How to Nail a Dictator tells the extraordinary story of how a film, aiding a new generation of human rights activists, became a granito — a tiny grain of sand — that helped tip the scales of justice.

ai\_irvine@aiusaoc.org

<http://www.aiusaoc.org/granito>